With 30 years experience in accounting and finance, and a serious commitment to extraordinary personal service, Bill St. Clair works to bring added value to client relationships.

Value is the cornerstone of St. Clair CPA Solutions. As a founding partner of St. Clair & Associates in 1986, Bill envisioned a full-service company delivering integrated, high-quality financial services with professional teamwork, communication, and a comprehensive approach to building businesses and growing wealth. In 1999 that vision was realized with the formation of St. Clair CPAs, P.C. and later its financial services affiliate, CPA Financial Group, LLC. As the pillars of St. Clair CPA Solutions, these firms have built strategic alliances to offer business and personal clients expert service in areas of accounting and auditing, financial statements, tax strategies, business consulting, employee benefits, retirement benefits, and insurance, and access to investment and wealth management services through Commonwealth Financial Network, a Registered Investment Adviser. With these united resources, Bill creates value-driven strategies for clients that respond to present needs while planning for future contingencies and growth.

Bill meets personally with clients to understand and assess a client's needs for accounting and other financial services. As an advisor for every stage of the business or family lifecycle, Bill shares his expertise on a wide range of financial matters. Clients trust Bill for hands-on problem-solving, dependable plans, and reliable account management services. Colleagues turn to Bill for professional leadership, guided by his lifelong dedication to integrity and service.

Studying dual majors, Bill earned a B.S. degree in Accounting and a B.A. degree in Economics at LaSalle University. He and his wife enjoy living in Cinnaminson, New Jersey with their four children.

Securities and Advisory Services offered through Commonwealth Financial Network®, Member FINRA/SIPC, a Registered Investment Adviser.
