Manager

bdimattesa@stclaircpa.com

Brian DiMattesa offers more than a decade of tax, accounting and auditing experience to the clients of St. Clair CPA Solutions. A dedicated professional with excellent technical and analytical skills, Brian also has significant experience in serving small businesses as a QuickBooks™ consultant and trainer.

Brian is proficient in tax review for both businesses and individuals, and can expertly assist those who require multi-state tax filings. While he has worked with businesses in various industries throughout his career, he has particular experience providing comprehensive tax services to companies in real estate, medicine, law, and engineering. Brian takes pride in focusing on the fine details that can help clients minimize their tax liability, while ensuring that returns and reporting are in compliance. Clients of all types and sizes appreciate Brian's diligence and value his highly personal service.

An experienced accounting and auditing supervisor, Brian has led professional staff on an array of client engagements ranging from nonprofit organizations to large supermarkets and entities requiring Housing and Urban Development or Department of Transportation audits. In addition to managing the engagement and reviewing financial results, Brian enjoys interpreting data and communicating with clients to transform information into action. As a business advisor and consultant, he excels in helping management teams develop efficient operational processes to maximize their bottom line. He can also cooperate with the financial professionals at St. Clair CPA Solutions and their strategic partners to provide clients with high quality group benefits, insurance, investment, and retirement services as needed.

Brian is a licensed Certified Public Accountant in Pennsylvania and New Jersey and a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the New Jersey Society of Certified Public Accountants. He earned his bachelor's degree in accounting with a minor in economics from The Pennsylvania State University, and now serves his alma mater as a board member of the Philadelphia Chapter of the Penn State Alumni Association. Brian and his wife reside with their two children in Gloucester Township, New Jersey.
