Dave specializes in insurance and employee benefit programs that help create rewarding workplaces for employers and employees.

As a benefits consultant, Dave is committed to best practices and delivering quality services that exceed expectations at every level. Because studies show that financially secure employees are more productive, and healthy employees save companies money, Dave works closely with human resources personnel to maximize the rewards of a sound benefits program, while minimizing administrative processes, time, and costs.

Dave previously worked in the insurance industry, where he gained significant expertise in a full array of insurance products. Clients benefit from Dave's experience in analyzing the financial needs of business owners and providing insurance that adds value to compensation plans. By helping clients with Key Person insurance, Buy/Sell Funding agreements, and other insurance products, Dave gives businesses, institutions, and organizations of any size a measure of financial security that is most often underappreciated until the day it is needed.

Through the firm's strategic partners, EBA Consulting and Commonwealth Financial Network, a Registered Investment Adviser, Dave offers clients a wide array of insurance and tax-deferred annuity products from the country's most prestigious providers, as well as access to investment and wealth management services.

Dave received his B.S. degree in Finance from Susquehanna University. He resides in Cinnaminson, New Jersey.

Securities and Advisory Services offered through Commonwealth Financial Network®, Member FINRA/SIPC, a Registered Investment Adviser.
